Hi Everyone,

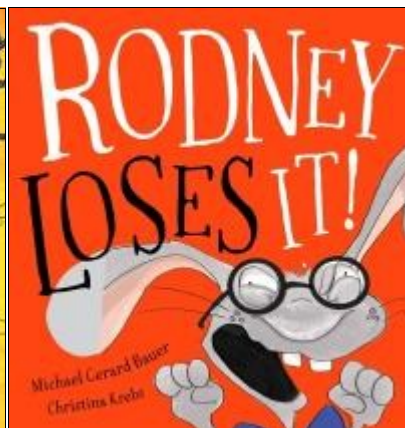

Welcome to our special Book Week edition of our school Newsletter.

Once again, thank you to everyone for getting into the spirit of the event and dressing up for our special assembly. A special thank you to Mrs Paidra, Mrs Lawless and Mrs Pritchett for organising their PowerPoint slides to share the books they have been reading in their classes. Head over to the next page to see some of the wonderful costumes from our Book Week celebration.

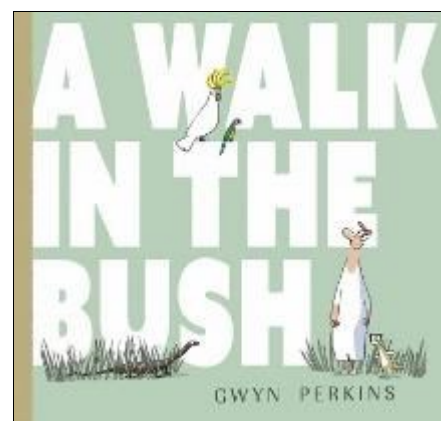

As part of Book Week, The Children's Book Council of Australia release their Book of the Year winners. This winners are:

How to Bee by Bren MacDibble (for middle and upper Primary)

Rodney Loses It! By Michael Gerard Bauer (for Early Childhood)

A Walk in the Bush by Gwyn Perkins (Picture book of the Year)

Mr Noble and our Year 5 and 6 students are in Canberra this week. I am told that despite the cold, they are having a wonderful time, and even managing to learn a thing or two while they are at it! Turn over to see a few photos of the trip so far. Thanks to our amazing P&C for their support in making the trip possible.

Have a great week everyone!

Katherine Mills
